

FUNERAL OF JUDGE BROWNING TAKES PLACE AT BENTON

Delegation of East St. Louis Citizens
Accompanies Body to Last Resting Place.

The funeral of Judge D. M. Browning of East St. Louis was held at Benton, Ill., yesterday afternoon. A delegation of prominent East St. Louis professional and business men attended the services at his home on St. Louis avenue, East St. Louis, where he died at age 67. The body was taken by special train over the Illinois Central Railroad. An escort of five members of each of the fraternal organizations of East St. Louis accompanied the body.

At Benton the service took place at the First Baptist church, where Rev. J. C. Brown, pastor, the Reverend Mr. Throckmorton, assisted by the Reverend A. L. Jordan of Chicago, officiated. The funeral was held at the Masonic Grand Lodge where members of the church and at the cemetery. The honorary pallbearers were:

Mayor A. M. Stephens, W. S. Forman, J. W. Kirk, R. H. Flannagan, Daniel McGlynn, John J. Connelley, George F. O'Connell, Messick, W. H. Bennett, Charles Neustadt, D. S. Sexton of East St. Louis; Doctor Walter B. Smith, Dr. J. E. McLaughlin, Dr. J. M. Schaefer, Dr. M. W. Schaefer, James A. Farmer, Richard Rouquette, S. S. Wilderman, M. W. ...

Hardware Store Is Robbed.
Burglars entered the East St. Louis Hardware Store on Broadway Monday night or early yesterday morning and stole about $500 worth of cutlery and revolvers. Entrance was secured by breaking a rear window. The burglars also attempted to force an entrance to George Schaub's hardware store, but were probably frightened away.
